ROBERTS DISQUALIFIED.

THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS SHOWS WHY HE MUST NOT ENTER CONGRESS.

"HIS LAWBREAKING, WHICH RESULTED IN HIS

DEBARS HIM FROM CITIZENSHIP." The Woman's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church has just issued a pamphlet which is to be sent to the leading secular and religious newspapers throughout the country. antitled "Reasons why B. H. Roberts, of Utah. should be expelled from the House of Represe was of the LVIth Congress,' and contains the tives of the LVIth Congress, and contains the following paragraphs:

The said B. H. Roberts has married all his polygamous wives since the Edmunds Anti-Polygamy Law of 1882, or since the Congressional Anti-Polygamy law of 1882, and hence his marriages have all been consummated in open and wilful defiance of law, as well as in wilful defiance of the sense of morality of the American people. He has tactily admitted that he married Dr. Maggie C. Shipp since Utah was admitted to Statehood. He was convicted of living with plural wives prior to the amnesty proclamations of President Benjamin Harrison, on January 4, 1833, and of President Grover Cleveland, September 25, 1834, for which offence he served a term of imprisonment, to which he was sentenced on May 1, 1839.

Part of the penalty for living with plural wives, as prescribed by the Edmunds law of 1882 (see Section 8 of said law) and reaffirmed by the Edmunds-Tucker law of 1887, is disqualification to vote or to hold office as an American citizen. The said B. H. Roberts has confessedly lived with plural wives, and has begotten polygamous children since November 1, 1890, and has therefore not compiled with the conditions of either of the said amnesty proclamations, which shows him to be as defiant as ever.

In order to get back the property which had been escheated by the United States Government in the act of Congress. March, 1887, the Mormon Church pledged itself that "the rightfulness of the practice of polygamy shall not be inculcated." (See Joint Resolution No. 11 of the first session of the Lillid Congress.) This, of course, was a pledge on the part of the Mormon Church to cease even the reaching of polygamy. J. L. Rawlins, in the canacity of Delegate from the Territory of Utah to the House of Representatives of the said Lillid Congress, did, on the floor of the House of Representatives of the Solygamy should be forever abolished by the people of said State. The Constitutional Convention.

As an evidence that this was understood to include the severance of into the Constitutional the personal content of the practice of polygamy within the bounds of that state. Mr. Roberts being a prominent member of this Convention.

As an evidence that this was understood to include the severance of the polygamous relations already formed, the same Constitutional Convention provided that all laws of the Territory in force at the time of its adoption should remain in force until they expired by their own limitations or were altered or repealed by the Legislature. Among those laws we find the following law against "unlawful cohabitation": "If any male person hereafter cohabits with more than one woman, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than 5300 or by imprisonment in the county fail for not more than six months, or by both said punishments in the discretion of the court"; and the Utah Legislature, while the matter was still fresh in the minds of all the people, did incorporate in the code of the State the said Territorial law against "unlawful cohabitation" (the technical term for living in polygamous relations already formed which provided severe penalties for the violation of said law. As soon after the above action as the people had mormon question had been happily settled, the Mormon question had been happily settled, the Mormon Church began to teach polygamy all over the State, thus violating one of its solemn pledges to the Government. Simultaneously with the remewal of such teaching, the leaders of the Mormon Church began to teach polygamy all over the State, thus violating one of its solemn pledges to the Government. Simultaneously with the remewal of such teaching, the leaders of the Mormon Church renewed their polygamous relations, and the polygamists amons the common people followed the example of their leaders, until all pretence of keeping the said law had been given up, thus violating another of its solemn pledges to the Government.

violating another of its solemn pledges to the Government.
When attention was called to this lawless condition of things. "The Descret News." of Salt Lake City, official organ of the Mormon Church, gave lengthy editorial space to a defence of such lawless centree, claiming that there was at the time of admission "a tacit understanding, not to say contract, that the dead strife (prosecution for polygamy) should be buried; that family obligations (meaning polygamous marriages) already entered into and maintained for years should not be discupted." Upon the same subject the said R. H. Roberts says: "Technically a law lagainst cohabitation with plural wivee) crept into our statute books. — That isw has not been executed, and, like some of the blue laws of Connecticut, which exist on the statute books under similar circumstances, it has not been enforced." (See "Salt Lake Hersid." November 6, 1838.) All this is, of course, in effect admitting that both the pretended constitutional and legal prohibition of polygamy were a mere farce to deceive the Nation and secure Statehood for Utah.

hood for Utah.

During the campaign which resulted in Mr. Roberts's election Governor Wells of Utah, himself a Mormon, referred to Mr. Roberts's polygamy, and raised a question as to the expediency of sending Mr. Roberts to Congress and thus renewing the Mr. Roberts results notypes with Mr. Roberts reraised a question as to the expediency of sending Mr. Roberts to Congress and thus renewing the discussion concerning polygamy. Mr. Roberts replied charging the Governor with "fouling his own sisters beyond the pale of the law," to which charge Governor Wells responded: "I would rather my tengue were torn from its roots than that I should utter a word against the divinity of the system which gave me birth." thus showing that even the Governor of the State of Utah dare not stand out against polygamy as a principle, or make any move toward the enforcement of the anti-nolygamy laws. Writing to "The Salt Lake Tribune" during Mr. Roberts's campaign. Nathan Tanner, if a representative of the Mormon Church, said: "Utah was entitled to admission into the Union without making any covenant. The United States had no right, therefore, to insist upon it as a condition precedent to admission: it was obtained by duress and, therefore, not binding upon those who made it. Like the promise of a man who is selzed by a powerful foe and compelled, in order to gain his freedom, to make some promise which the other has no right to demand, the obligation is of no moral or legal effect, but may be repudiated, and the parties stand with reference to each there the same as if no promise had been made." (See "Salt Lake Tribune," November 6, 1985). The issue is thus squarely joined. By the election of the said B. H. Roberts, Utah serves a notice upon the Nation that she repudiates her selemn covenant which she made in order to secure Statehood.

The pamphlet closes with an earnest appeal in the nation that she repudiates her selemn covenant which she made in order to secure Statehood.

The pamphlet closes with an earnest appeal in the name of honesty, morality and the Christian home that Roberts, the lawbreaker and polygamist, be not allowed to have a voice in the National

BRANCH ALLIANCE MEETING.

The Branch Alliance of the Church of the Messiah held a large and successful meeting yesterday morning in the church parlors, Mrs. S. A. Burton presiding Mrs. W. S. Keener read the treasurer's report, which showed the finances to be in a flourishing condition. Fifty dollars had been sent to help the new church at Gouverneur, N. Y., which was dedicated last Tuesday. The Postoffice Mission is doing a good work, having been the direct means of starting several new churches. Letters were read from North Platte, Neb.; New-Mexico, Detroit and Greenville, S. C., thanking the society which was distributed among the 203d New-York National Alliance, spoke on the work at Gouverneur, N. Y., and Richmond, Va., both of which movements have been greatly helped by contribu-

Dr. Savage, who was to give an address at 11 o'clock, was absent because of an attack of the grip. His place was taken by the Rev. Robert Collyer, who gave a most interesting paper on "Charles and Mary Lamb." After describing the Youth and early life of Charles Lamb, the paper dealt mainly with Lamb's intense devotion to his afflicted sister, with a tender and pathetic description of their life together. Charles Lamb's friendship for Coleridge was touched on, and his saying that "Coleridge taught him all the corruption he ever knew that had not come by nature," and likened him to "an archangel a little damaged. The paper closed with the lines on Lamb as one Whom neither shape of danger could dismay, Nor dream of tender happiness betray; Who, doomed to walk in company with pain, Turned the necessity to glorious gain."

MME. MARCHESI'S FIRST APPEARANCE. The New-York Kindergarten Association will the distinction of introducing to New-York Mme. Blanche Marchest, who has consented to make her American debut at the first concert of the association, which will be given on the afternoon of January 23. This and the second entertainment, on the afternoon of February 8 will take place at the houses of two of the patronesses, to be announced

At the second concert the Victor Harris Quartet will sing. It consists of Miss Marguerife Hall, Mrs. Seabury Ford and Mackenzie Gordon and Carl Dufft, who will sing a cycle of Tennyson songs, composed by Arthur Foote and Victor

Harris.

This price of tickets for each concert will be is each. They may be obtained from the following committee, who have charge of the entertainments. Miss May R. Cromwell. No. 5 East Fifty-sixth-st.; Miss Helen Dunham, No. 37 East Thirty-sixth-st.; Miss Helen Dunham, No. 37 East Thirty-sixth-st.; Miss Helen Phelps Stokes. No. 229 Madison-ave.; Miss Carpenter. No. 54 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 54 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 54 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 55 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 56 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 57 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter. No. 58 East Fifty-seventh-st.; Miss Carpenter.

THE DAY'S GOSSIP.

The Associate Alumna of the Normal College Park-ave, and Sixty-eighth-st., will hold its month-ly reception this afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock.

The Photereme Reading Club will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hairley, No.
161 Hancock-st., Brooklyn. "Pushkin and the Romantic Movement in Russia" will be the subject of Mrs. William D. Faris's paper, and Mrs. A.
Lovell will give an article on "Gogol."

Mrs. Sarah Bronson How will give this morning, at the Church Club rooms, Clinton and Fulton sts., Brooklyn, the first in a series of three morning readings from different authors. These readings are under the auspices of the Junior Co-Workers of St. John's Hospital Church Charity Foundation. The subjects selected for to-day are Jane Barlow and the Irish dialect stories.

"Vondel, the Man and Poet," will be the subject considered to-day by Leonard Charles Van Noppen in the Holland Society lectures on Dutch literature. given in the department of Germanic languages and literature, Columbia University. The lecture will be held in No. 305 Schermerhorn Hall, One-hun-dred-and-sixteenth-st. between Amsterdam-ave. and the Boulevard. It will begin at 4:30 p. m.

Miss S. C. Very will lecture this morning at 10 clock on "Composer and Poet" at the Kirpal Conservatory of Music, in Flushing, Long Island.

The orchestra of the Philharmonic Society of Columbia University will hold its regular rehearsal at 4:30 p. m. at No. 509 Schermerhorn. All officers and students of the University are invited to join the orchestra.

"Studies in the Life of Christ" will be the subject to be considered this afternoon at 8:30 o'clock, by H. B. Sharman in the Devotional Bible Class, held at No. 304 Fayerweather, Columbia University.

Mrs. T. St. John Gaffney will receive to-day and January 28 at her home, No. 383 West Seventy-seventh-st.

Announcement is made by Charles Burr Todd of the transference of all his interest in the Guild Literary Association, founded by him, to the International Press Association, of No. 114 Fifth-ave., and he cordially commends the new proprietors to his patrons and others interested.

President and Mrs. McKinley will hold the judicial reception at the White House this evening from 9 to 11 o'clock.

The annual charity ball of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum will be held this evening, as usual, at the Academy of Music. Special preparations have been made this year, with a view to having the interior decorations of the Academy excel any previous at-tempt in the same line. The management of this institution contemplates making some additions to the building of the asylum, and those interested in the working of this charity have spared no effort to make this ball the most successful ever held.

Mrs. J. Oscroft Tansley, of No. 28 West Fortythird-st., announces that she will be "at home the first and third Tuesday afternoons in January and February.

Miss Louise Fischer will give a talk this morn ing at 11 o'clock on "German Legends" at Mrs. Charles Gardner's school, No. 607 Fifth-ave.

Walter S. Perry, director of the department of fine arts. Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, will continue his course of lectures this afternoon on the "His-tory of Architecture, Sculpture and Painting." The special subject this afternoon is "Renaissance Art," which includes the classic revival in Italy.

of the Froebel Society, a lecture will be given this evening at the Froebel Academy, Brooklyn, by Principal C. Hanford Henderson, of Pratt Institute High School. The topic is "The Point of View of Education."

Henry M. Leipziger will be given to-night in the following schools: Great hall of Cooper Institute, Eighth-st. and Third-ave, "Mutual Approach of Eighth-st. and Third-ave, "Mutual Approach of Nationality and Democracy, 1803-20," Professor William H. Mace; Young Men's Institute, No. 222 Bowery, "The Aerial Ocean" (illustrated), J. Newton Gray; Young Men's Christian Association Hail, No. 52 East Twenty-third-st., "The Sun: Spectrum Analysis; Light and Heat" (illustrated), Professor Robert W. Frentiss; Young Men's Christian Association Hail, No. 5 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fith-st., "Wonders of Modern Science" (illustrated), W. J. Clarke.

IN AID OF ST. VINCENT'S.

CHARITABLE WOMEN WORKING TO FUR-NISH THE NEW HOSPITAL BUILDING.

A musical, dance and supper will be given this evening at the Waldorf-Astoria, under the auspic of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Vincent's Hospital, and the proceeds will be devoted to furnishing the new building, which is almost completed. This building is devoted especially to the utterly destitute sick, who, being unable to pay, might lack medical care and attendance, owing to the over-crowded condition of the public buildings on Black-

The new hospital in Eleventh-st. is now nearly completed, at a cost of over $300,000, which is a debt the Sisters must meet. During the last year 1,308 patients were treated entirely free, many whom were the soldiers seat up from Cuba. T auxiliary of women meets every Thursday morning at the hospital to visit the sick and sew for the poor. With a view to assisting the Sisters in their efforts With a view to assisting the Sisters in their efforts the members of the auxiliary cordially invite their friends to aid them in their work of charity.

The entertainment to-night will be of the highest order, some of the most eminent artists in the city having volunteered their assistance. The dancing which will follow the supper will conclude with a cotillon, the favors of which are of unique design. All of the boxes in the big hall of the hotel have been sold, a large number of tickets have been disposed of and everything indicates that the entertainment will be one of much social interest.

THE GOLF BALL TO-NIGHT AT RUTGERS.

The golf ball, one of the three great annual so-ciety events—the junior and senior balls of Rutgers College being the other two-will take place tonight in Columbia Hall, New-Brunswick. The whole hall is practically turned over to the committee

Those who receive are Mrs. Thomas Parker, Mrs. Bayard Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Willard Voorhees, Mrs. Nicholas Williamson, Mrs. Downe Williamson, Mrs. Clarkson Runyon, Mrs. William Myers and Mrs. Henry Nellson. All the married women of the club are patronesses of the ball. About one hundred and fifty people are generally present. The handsomest gowns are worn at this time. It seems that black will be the prevailing color worn by the Reception Committee this year. One member has a black velvet Worth gown, and two have combinations of black lace and velvet. Another will wear

This ball is intended more for the married mem-

This ball is intended more for the married members, while the junior ball, as well as the senior, is for the younger people. The arrangements for the junior ball, which takes place next month, are not yet completed.

On the invitations the name of Mrs. Scott, the wife of the president of the college, always heads the list of the Reception Committee, while those of the most popular society women of the townnot of the college-follow in alphabetical order. Mrs. Hobart, Miss Helen Gould, Mrs. Griggs and Mrs. Ballantyne have been most kind to the college boys in the past, each one of them having a peculiar interest in the college, and being regarded almost as much a part of it as Mrs. Scott herself.

A SALE OF PANCY WAISTS.

Never did a sale create so much interest as the one now going on in the shop of Forsythe, the well-known waist manufacturer, at No. 865 Broad-success, but yesterday the number which attended the opening or the higher-priced goods, sliks, satins, velvets, etc., far exceeded anything in the history of the house. The beauty and variety of the goods displayed were more than sufficient to captivate the feminine heart, and while the reduced prices last it is predicted that few women will miss the sale.

CURIOS GIVEN BY THE QUEEN.

The Battenberg Memorial Museum at Carisbrooke Castle, has lately been enriched by Queen Victoria with some interesting gifts, including a number of Stuart relics which have been kept for number of Stuart relics which have been kept for many years at Windsor Castle. There are a sliver snuffbox presented by Charles II to one of his father's adherents: a crystal locket, with pearly pendants, that contains a lock of the hair of Charles I, which was cut off after his execution, and a goli signet ring, containing a piece of the dress of Princess Elizabeth. The snuffbox bears a medaillon portrait, in relief, of Charles I on one side while on the other side is a similar portrait of Queen Henrietta Maria.

GOOD CHEER
Have you had a kindness shown?
Pass it on.
Twas not given for you alone—
Pass it on.
Let it travel down the years.
Let it wipe another's tears.
Till in heaven the deed appears—
Pass it on.

I WONDER WHY!

I wonder why some lives are filled with sorrow?
Whose ev'ry sinile but gleams thro' unshed tears.
Each hopeless day doth naught but sadness bor-night

Around such lives ill-omened birds concenter.
Whose outstretched wings exude a pois nous blight. I wonder why some vainly woo good fortune. To find clusive bubbles scaring high? Whose ev'ry grasp and hopeful, fond endeavor Ends in a mad, despairing cry?

I wonder why some lives, so pure and noble. Ne'er find the helping hand pray'd for in vain? Nor word, nor look, encouragement bestowing Nerves them to bear and yet bear again.

I wonder why Fate in unequal portions Withholds or gives the blessings that we crave?
Perhaps when Life shall answer Death's stern challenge

We'll find the answer there—beyond the grave.

—(Kate Thyson Marr.

Contributed to the column by the author.

Rice, of Bethlehem, Penn., has been given to Miss Lulu Ehrlicher, a. T. S. S. member, of No. 240 East Nineteenth-st., this city. Miss Ehrlicher possesses the requirements stipulated by the donor. sesses the requirements stipulated by the donor, that the guitar should go to a member with musical tastes, who makes her living teaching music, and who did not feel able to purchase such an expensive instrument. The gift will enable the recipient to increase her work, besides giving much added pleasure to pupils and friends. She called at the office yesterday to take away the guitar and express her deep appreciation for having this sunshine come her way. Although living in New-York, she is a member of Brooklyn Branch No. 2.

Mrs. John Clinton Gray, of Albany, N. Y., will forward The Sunday Tribune to Miss Virginia Mc-Lain, president of the T. S. S. branch at Nassau, Bahamas.

Nelson McCartney, of Indiana, Penn., expresses thanks for two valuable books received from unknown members, also a calendar and subscription for "The Shut-In Friend."

WORK IN CONNECTICUT.

There seems to be no end to the resources of the Scoffeld has established a circulating Sunshine library in Stamford, Conn. There are now fortyeight books bound, numbered and ready for circu lation. The library will be open to members each Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock at No. 23 South-st. The list of new books added each week will be published in the Sunshine column of "The ANOTHER SUNSHINE FAIR.

Mrs. E. L. Scoffeld has announced that a fair will be given in Stamford on Washington's Birth-day, February 22. This fair is for the benefit of the Connecticut Sunshine branches. The membership now numbers almost two hundred. There will be now numbers almost two hundred. oths, and one will be called the State booth, where the State president will preside, with her ipers. There will be all the done much in dis-tendance. The Connecticut branches have done much in dis-tribution of the members all through attendance.

The Connecticut branches have done much in distributing sunshine to other members all through the United States, and now the President-General asks that contributions be sent to this State booth. It is particularly requested that members in Connecticut who have not joined any of the branches will send some contributions to the State booth, to be sold to bring money into the treasury. Any pretty thing that would be salable at the fair will be welcome from members in other States. Contributions for the fair sent to the main office will be acknowledged and forwarded to Mrs. Sconfeld, of Stamford Mrs. Sconfeld says that she expects to realize a good sum for the treasury. Packages sent directly to Stamford should be marked for Mrs. E. L. Sconfeld, No. 23 South-st. Stamford. Conn., for the sunshine fair. Such pretty articles as were made for the fair at White Plains will again be acceptable. There were knit shoes, slumber capes, slumber choice, slumber wraps, face cloths, pretty pen-wipers, pla balls, pin trays, doilles, fancy-work, aprobs, etc. The great good luck of the Sunshine Society is attributed to the first fair, which was superintended by Mrs. Painter and which brought into the general fund $30. This money started the society out on its great Christmas work. Mrs. Sconfeld expects to make at least three times this amount. All of her members are most enthusiastic workers.

Flower in the crannied wall,
I pluck you out of the crannies:—
Hold you here, root and all, in my hand,
Little flower—but if I could understand
What you are, root and all, and all in all,
I should know what God and man is.
—(Alfred Tennyson.

Miss L. L. Fitzpatrick, of Bellport, Long Island, is grateful for the assistance given her by the T. S. S. in her Christmas work. Individual Sunshine gifts were distributed, and a tree was arranged for the poor children of the village, whose joy was unbounded, especially the colored children, who are wretchedly poor. Miss Fitzpatrick will organize a T. S. S. branch in Bellport.

Mrs. T. F. Hunt, of Carbondale, Penn., sent a Aris. 1. F. Hunt, of Carcondaic, Penn., sent a Christmas gift to Mamie Lambert, Cherokee, N. C. It was a roll of bright scarlet cloth, with gilt spangles, bought in Lo. Angeles. She also sent her a photograph of a group of Indian children in Arizona. Interesting paotographs were sent by Mrs. Hunt to the Matthews children, at Sanibel Island, Fla.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

President-General of the T. S. S.: Why won't you suggest that twenty or twenty-five members shall pledge 50 cents a month, so as to insure a little fund for the inevitable postage and expres expenses? I will very gladly be one of the number. With kindest regards, and thanks for the privileges which I enjoy through you of helping others, and with cordial wishes for your health and happiness in this new year, believe me, very sincerely yours, Dorchester, Mass.

EDITH L. CHASE.

J. B. Osborne, of Charleston, W. Va., is deeply grateful to all the members who sent him Christ-mas greetings. He asks for some good novels, also for "Hearthstone" and "Modern Stories" for Defor "Hearthstone" and "Modern Stories" for De-cember and January, if any member has them to gests "Let Us Scatter Seeds of Kindness" as the Sunshine hymn. Miss Carrie Garrabrant, of Orange, N. J., sug

Miss M. D. Van Voorhis has been sending the Moultrie-ave. Dorchester, Mass Oeen sending the Woman's Pages to Miss Crace H. Tucker, No. 21 Moultrie-ave. Dorchester, Mass Owing to ill health, Miss Van Voorhis has been obliged to leave home. Will some other member agree to send the pages to Mrs. Tucker, who is an invalid mamber.

J. L. R., of Newark, N. J., desires to thank, through the column, Elizabeth A. Stuart, of Providence. R. I., for a copy of the poem, "What Is Home," so kindly forwarded in response to a re-

Gertrude Adams, of Passaic, N. J., has sent a pair of bed slippers to Mrs. H. H. Seagle, an invalid member, of Newton, N. C.

If any member in New-Hampshire has the Woman's Pages to "pass on," let him or her please notify the office.

The poem sent by E. J. C., of Brooklyn, has been used in the column, so it was "passed on." Mrs. Hiram Wiltsie, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., will continue to send "The Churchman" this year to Mrs. H. Matthews, Sanibel Island, Fia., and "St. Nicholas" to the children of Mrs. Matthews.

JOY FOR LITTLE ANNIE. Mrs. Parsons and her little crippled daughter Annie, who live at No. 501 West Fifty-sixth-st., be-lieve that Santa Claus keeps his headquarters at

The Tribune Sunshine Society office, for gleams of brightness have been pouring in on them ever since the little girl's story was told in the T. S. S. col-

the little girl's story was told in the T. S. S. column.

A letter arrived at their house simply signed "Magic Box," because that happy and bewildering instrument accompanied it, and other letters and Christmas gifts were sent by Marion G. Roberts, of Trenton, N. J.; May E. Barnard, Ridgefield, Conn.; Ida E. Barnes, Syracuse, N. Y., Marjery S. Alpaugh, Trenton, N. J., Rosalind Adelaide Richmond, New-York; Betty Wolf (eleven years old), Brooklyn; Mrs. Demerest, Middletown, N. Y.; "A Friend," Mrs. George N. Birdsall, Sarah N. Cleghorn, Manchester, Vt., Mrs. Emlly Ost, Brooklyn; Mrs. Edward, Brooklyn; Vietta Hillyer, Brooklyn; Mrs. Edward, Brooklyn; Vietta Hillyer, Brooklyn; Mrs. Edward Dexter, Brooklyn; Mrs. Francis C. Moore, New-York; Miss Cooley, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Mrs. Farnsworth, Providence, R. I.; M. J. Peckhaus, New-York, and a little girl who signed herself "A missionary, Elsie." A handsome Red Cross doll was received from the Stamford (Conn.) T. S. S. branch, Mrs. Parsons sends her earnest thanks to all.

WOMEN HEAR ABOUT PENOLOGY.

INTERESTING DISCUSSION OF THE TREAT MENT OF CRIMINALS BEFORE A CHAR-

ITY ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE The monthly conference of the Central Auxiliary Committee of Women of the Charity Organization Society was held yesterday in the assembly-roo Fourth-ave. The conference was well attended, the sion was "The Indefinite Sentence," meaning those the cases of first offenders and offenders in whose cases reformation is considered impossible.

The first speaker was William F. Rounds, an officer of the Prison Association. He dwelt on the care for themselves, and said that while in the criminal work they engaged in they appeared to exhibit unusual shrewdness and acumen, yet crim-inals were helpless when it came to earning an honest livelihood The Elmira Reformatory was built for these. Its aim was to teach criminals some useful trade, and to instil into them industry and ambition along legitimate and lawful lines.

need of a real indeterminate sentence system of reformation for criminals. Penology was a progressive science, Mr. Warner said, although it had not been a science long, and was still largely a natter of experiment. "There really isn't an inleterminate sentence law anywhere in the world, grugged and soothed into thinking that something of the kind is now being practised. Nowhere in the orld is a man sent to a reformatory for an inditerminate time. What is popularly supposed sich a system in use here began in Ireland in an ei periment known there as the 'ticket-of-leave systein," by which a prisoner when he showed docilto go at large with a ticket, with the proviso that if he misbehaved he could be rearrested and if he misbehaved he could be rearrested and briught back to serve out his time. About the same system is called here in the United States the bad ole system. Our present system in dealing what the defined criminal class does not stop crime. It leeps it going. We have police, kept at great expanse, magistrates and judges, and in a general way we want to do away with crime. Still, we don't do anything definite, and there is a kind of feeling that these criminals are making use of only another way of making a living, and it's all in a lifetime.

another way of making a living, and it's all in a lifetine."

The believe from observations of several years that the proper method is to say to a man at his first effence. This is the last felony you will commit. Burglary is an interesting life. I've talked to many of those fellows, and know the interest they lake in their profession. It has a zest something like hunting, or war, or any competitive game of skill. They look upon it as a career, and they have a large number of relatives and hangerson. It me of these are cheap lawyers, who thrive on prettice connected with such crime. All will oppose an indeterminate sentence as an intrusion on the rights of human liberty. But if we want to stort crime, and society has the right to protect itself, he must teach a man at once that there is no chauce for him along such lines. Keep him under freatment till he is cured of his disease. If he can' be cured for a long time, keep him under treatment; if he is incurable, the reformatory is the plade where he belongs for life for the good of society.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS IN THE BRONX.

APPROVE A SITE FOR ONE NEW STATION AND ARE AIRELY TO ORDER ANOTHER BUILD-ING AT TREMONT.

Police Cammissioners York, Hess and Abell went up to High Bridge yesterday afternoon and spected the site for the new police station at that point. They were met at High Bridge by Andrew H. Green and one of the trustees of the Ogden estate, from which the reform Police Board purchased the site for the new station. President York said afterward that he felt satisfied with the and the new station would be erected soon.

From High Bridge the Commissioners went over to the Tremont station, in Bathgate-ave., between One-hundred-and-seventy-eighth and One-hundred-One-hundred-and-seventy-eighth and One-hundred-and-seventy-ninth sts. The station there occupies anoid and dilapidated one-story stone building, from seven to eight feet below the present level of the street. Next door is a four-story brick building, the upper stories of which are used as a dormitory for the men and the basement as a stable for horses. Both buildings stand on a rock, and frequent blasting has shaken them so that the walls have cracked. The Building Department a few weeks ago ordered the blasting discontinued, as it threatened to shake down both buildings.

When the grade is finished the house will be fifteen feet above the street and the stable and dormitories about twelve feet above the street. The Board will take up the subject at its next meeting, and it is possible that it may ask that the property be sold and another site purchased.

MAYOR DISCOVERS A POLICE OUTRAGE.

UNJUSTIFIABLE ARRESTS, AND HE DE-MANDS AN INVESTIGATION.

which has been waged for several months. The Mayor wrote a letter to President York of the Police Board, in which he denounced the conduct of the police as outrageous, and directed the Com hissioners to sift the matter to the bottom. The Municipal Assembly has for some time hung up the ordinance regulating the rates for pushcart pediers, and pending the passage of this ordi-nance the pediers cannot get licenses. Every day they vainly crowd the corridors of the City Hall. In the mean time the police arrest the pedlers by wholesale for the want of the licenses which they cannot get, and every day for the last week the asement corridor of the City Hall has been filled with the pushcarts of the men seized.

A committee representing the New-York Pediers' Association called on the Mayor yesterday and made known the way in which the police were treating the pedlers. Their complaints were loudest against the police of the Eldridge-st. station. After hearing the committee, the Mayor wrote the following letter to Fresident York:

Dear Sir: A committee of the New-Tork Pediers' Association has just called on me and made a statement in reference to arbitrary arrests and unjustifiable interference with them in the pursuit of their trade of pediing on the atreets.

From the statement made it would seem that not only a wrong, but an outrage, has been perpetrated by the police of the precinct in which are Ridge. Rivington and Houston sts., and I desire that you give these men a respectful hearing and sift this matter to the bottom.

ROBERT A. VAN WYCK, Mayor.

RAILROAD DIFFERENTIALS REDUCED.

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST NEW-YORK IN FA-VOR OF BALTIMORE, NORFOLK AND NEW-

Baltimore, Jan. 17 (Special).-The grain merchants of Baltimore were startled to-day by the announceent that at a meeting of the railroad trunk line presidents in Washington the differential, or rate discrimination, on grain in favor of Baltimore, Nor-folk and Newport News, against New-York and Philadelphia, had been cut down one-half. President Smith of the Chamber of Commerce said that the Exchange had supposed the matter was settled when the fight was made before the Interstate Commerce Commission. They were then assured by the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad officials that the three-cent differential should stand. Receivers Cowen and Murray of the Baltimore and Ohio were not in the city to con-firm or deny the report. It is rumored that the firm or deny the report. It is rumored that the change was brought about through the influence of New-York financiers, who will control the reorganized Baltimore and Ohlo.

It is said that Baltimore, instead of having a differential of 3 cents a hundred pounds, will be allowed to have only 1½ cents, and Philadelphia 1 instead of 2 cents.

The New-York Produce Exchange made the complaint before the Interstate Commerce Commission against Baltimore, after the recent decision of the Supreme Court. The Baltimore men are indignant and will make a protest.

LAKE ERIE AND WESTERN CHAIRMAN. At a meeting yesterday of the directors of the Western Railroad Company, of which road the late ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice was president, Frederick W. Whitridge, of Cary & Whitridge, Senator Brice's legal advisers, was elected chairman of the Board. The Board passed resolutions of sympathy on the death of Mr. Brice. No action was taken on the dividend question.

DRIVING-WHEEL GOES TO PIECES. The big driving-wheel in one of the large factory buildings of the Lorillard Tobacco Company, Jersey City, broke yesterday, killing two of the employes and causing serious and probably fatal injuries to two others. The two dead are: DELANET, James, twenty-eight years old, of No. 26 Eric-st., Jersey City, assistant engineer. M'CARTHY, Nora, twenty-two years old, of No. 405 Second-st., Jersey City. The injured are:

HICKEY, Mary, nineteen years old, of No. 184 Ninth-st. injured about the head and internally; taken to St. Francis's Hospital DILLON, Margaret, twenty-one years old, of No. 183 Railrond-ave, Jersey City, internal injuries and both legs broken; taken to St. Francis's Hospital.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Tompkins King. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Alsop King, of No East Twenty-first-st., to J. Edward Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Williams Davis, of this city, was celebrated yesterday afternoon in Calvary Protestant Episcopal Church, Fourth-ave, and Twenty-first-st., in the presence of several hundred guests. The chancel was decorated with evergreens, palms and some tall growing plants. The marriage ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks. The bride, who was escorted to the altar and given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin, with trimmings father, wore a gown of white satin, with trimmings of lace and a lace voil. Her bouquet was of white orchids. Miss Caroline King Lee, a cousin, was the maid of honor, and Miss Cornelia Van Rensselaer Delafield, another cousin, and Miss Elouise Davis, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. Mr. Davis's best man was William Brevoort Potts. The ushers were Morgan Davis, a cousin of the bridegroom; Charles H. Van Rensselaer and Alexis Reed McIlvaine, cousins of the bride; Seymour Le Grand Cromwell, Graham Stokes and S. Brinckerhoff Thorne. The bride's family being in deep mourning, only relatives and a very few personal friends were invited to the reception.

third-st., at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss M. Adele Barrow, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs James Thomas Barrow, of No. 165 West Fifty eighth-st., was married to the Rev. Rockland T Homans, of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in West Eighty-fourth-st. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Brown, the rector, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Krans. of St. Matthew's Church. Bishop Potter pronounced the benediction. The music, under the direction of Dr. George William Warren, included the "Coronation March" from "The Prophet" and the bridal hymn "O Perfect Love." The bride wore a gown of heavy white satin, trimmed with duchesse lace, and a veil of tulie caught up with a spray of orange blos-soms. Miss Lillie L. Fraser was the maid of honor, soms. Miss Lille L. Fraser was the maid of honor, and Miss Suste T. Homans, sister of the bride-groom; Miss Helen Stagg Abernethy, cousin of the bride; Miss May Bishop and Miss Suste S. Van Volkenburgh were the bridesmaids. Edmund C. Parish attended the bridegroom as best man. The ushers were the Rev. Oliver S. Newell, the Rev. Richard D. Pope, the Rev. William O. Baker and the Rev. Henry Messier, Frederick H. Whitin and Robert Peet.

Nereshelmer, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hargrove, at one time acting president of the Theosophical Society in America, was quietly solemnized at 6 o'clock last evening, in the Church of the Holy Apostles, Ninth-ave, and Twenty-eighthony, which was performed by the rector, the Rev Dr. Brady E. Backus. At noon to-day Miss Jean Edgar Clerke, ter of the late William B. Clerke, of this city, will be married to William M. Purdy, in the Church of the Incarnation, Madison-ave, and Thirty-fifth-st A small breakfast for relatives will follow at the home of the bride's mother, No. 82 East Fifty The marriage of Miss Harriet M. Shelton. ter of Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Shelton, of No. 521 Madison-ave, to Dr. Frederick Kellogg Hollister, will occur this afternoon, in St. Thomas's Church, Fifth-ave, and Fifty-third-st. In St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopa Church, Madison-ave, and Forty-fourth-st., this afternoon, Miss Julia Post Hard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anson W. Hard, of No. 49 Park-ave., will be married to Augustine J. Smith. The Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, assisted by the Rev. Dr. William R. Huntington, of Grace Church, will officiate at the ceremony.

Mrs. Charles Francis Stone, of No. 17 West. Twelfth-st., will be married to Paul C. Oscanyan, at 8 o'clock this evening, in All Souls Unitarian Church, Fourth-ave, and Twentieth-st. The reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Elsie Clifford Stone, a daughter of Mr. and Formal announcement is made of the engage Charles R. Huntington, of No. 49 East Twentieth-st., to the Rev. Alexander William Bostwick, the assistant rector of Calvary Church, this city. The engagement is announced of Miss Alice Gillet, daughter of Elmslie M. Gillet, of this city, to Henry Nott Ransom, of Albany, N. Y.

ment of Miss Mabel Huntington, a daughter

Mrs. Georgia Raymond, daughter of Mrs. George J. Clemens, of West One-hundred-and-forty-second st., will be married to Louis Henri Osborne this afternoon in St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Convent-ave, and One-hundred-and-forty-

Pittsburg, to E. D. Morgan Waterman, of New-York, took place at noon yesterday at the Rennert, Baltimore. Robert W. Dean, of Providence, R. I., was best man, and Miss Jane Peebles, a cousin of vell Miller, brother of the bride, and R. L. Wood, jr., of New-York, acted as ushers. The bride was given away by her father, John Henry Miller,

ILLEGAL POLICE PROMOTIONS.

TREASURER HESS WARNED BY THE CIVIL

SERVICE REFORM ASSOCIATION. George McAneny, secretary of the Civil Service Reform Association, yesterday sent to Jacob Hess, treasurer of the Board of Police, a letter which warned him that he would be held responsible for the payment of salaries to Deputy-Chief McLaugh-Inspectors Donaid Grant and James Kane, ptains James P. White. Thomas J. Diamond. Captains James P. White, Thomas J. Diamond, Henry Halpin and John Reardon, eight sergeants and thirty-one roundsmen, who had been promoted to their present places in the police force without compliance with Civil Service regulations. The letter calls attention to provisions of the State Conthe Civil Service law and the city char ter, and declares:

ter, and declares:

The persons whose names are given in the above list have been promoted to the positions they now hold since January 1, 1898, without examination, competitive or otherwise, and without compliance in any respect with the Civil Servire rules continuously in force during the period subsequent to that date. It follows that the promotions in question were invalid, and that the persons named continue to occupy their respective offices without legal right.

It is unlawful for the treasurer of the Board of Police to draw, sign or issue, or to authorize the drawing, signing or issuing of any warrant for the

It is unlawful for the treasurer or the Board of Police to draw, sign or issue, or to authorize the drawing, signing or issuing of any warrant for the payment of salary to any person whose appointment to an office has not been in pursuance of the terms of law, and a right of action is granted to any taxpayer to recover any amounts so disbursed from the said treasurer or from the sureties on his official bond.

It was said that Mr. Hess would not pay the salaries of the police officials named in the list until there had been obtained an order of the courts to protect him. President York of the Police Board said that the appointments of Deputy Chief McLaughlin and the others had been made upon the advice of the Corporation Coursel that the Police Board had the right to appoint the men to fill vacancies under a construction of the charter provisions for consolidating the New-York and Brooklyn departments. The appointments were made to fill vacancies which existed previous to the consolidation, with the exception of the appointments of Deputy Chief McLaughlin and Inspector Kane, Mr. York said, and those two appointments were made to test the right of the Police Board to make them without Civil Service examinations. The pay of McLaughlin and Kane has been held up for some time, pending the decision of a test suit. It was said that Mr. Hess would not pay the

THE JOSIAH PORTER MEMORIAL.

DECISION THAT THE STATUE SHALL BE PLACED IN VAN CORTLANDT PARK.

Albany, Jan. 17 (Special).-The committee of th National Guard Association on the location of the bronze statue of General Josiah Porter decided tonight to recommend Van Cortlandt Park, New York, as the site for it. The proposition to place it in Capitol Park, Albany, was rejected by the Capitol Commission, and Governor Roosevelt advised that it be placed in Academy Park, opposite State Hall. This was rejected. The National Guard Association will receive the report at its meeting to-day.

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY. Trenton, N. J., Jan. 17.-The National Carbon

Company was incorporated here to-day, with a capital stock of $10,000,000, of which $4,500,000 is non-cumulative 7 per cent preferred stock and S5.500.600 is common stock. The incorporators were W. H. Lawrence, Myron T. Herrick, James Parmelee and Webb C. Hayes, of Cleveland; J. C. Van Blarcum, of St. Louis: A. M. Young, of Brooklyn; J. M. Humbird and D. D. Dickey, of Pittsburg, and Hugh H. Hamil, of Trenton. Mr. Lawrence is president of the National Caroon Company of Cleveland, and a director of the bon Company of Cleveland, and a director of the Cleveland Trust Company. Mr. Parmelee is president of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company and vice-president of the Cleveland Electric Railway Company. Mr. Young is president of the Kings County Electric Light and Power Company of Brooklyn. The Northern Trust Company of Chicago, is transfer agent of the National Carbon Company, and the Marchants' Loan and Trust Company, of the same city, is to be registrar.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY.

Beautiful and effective decorations characterise the Ihpetonga ball which took place last even in the Art and Assembly rooms, in Montague-st. Brooklyn, which were thrown together for ballroom, the walls o' which were covered with Aubusson tapestries and numerous mirrers, the latter framed with wild smilax and a profusion of pink roses. The spaces were divided by pilasters of white and were divided by pilasters of white and gold, supporting a cornice studded with electric lights. In this room the patronesses, Mrs. James L. Morgan, jr., Mrs. Edward Hubbard Litchfield and

Mrs. A A. Low, stood to receive the guests, and the contrasting shades of their gowns formed a Mrs. Morgan was gowned in satin brocade of pale green, trimmed with point lace; Mrs. Litchfield wore a combination of silver and apricot color brocade, with garniture of old lace, while Mrs. A. A. Low was arrayed in white lace over pink.

The supper room was a bower of greenery. Branches of hemlock concealed the walls, and ropes of green depended from the centre of the celling and hung close together, making a tent roof.

Against this background of green great bunches of ornamentation was also of red, with baskets of growing ferns. The room connecting the supper and ball rooms was finished in black, cream and gold, while the small withdrawing room, to the right of the ballroom, was a blaze of scarlet, illuminated by Oriental lamps.

Supper was served at small tat -s at 12:15 o'clock, and the dancing began just one hour later. The IHPETONGA MENU.

IHPETONGA MENU.

Consommé de voiaille.

Huitres, béchamel tomatés.

Croquettes de ris de veau.

Petite pois Français,

Mayonnaise de voiaille.

Pigeonnesux rôtis au creason.

Terrine de foise-gras à la gelés.

Salade de laitues.

Sandwiches et Rillettes.

Glacce fantaisies.

Biscults tutti-frutti.

Fruits.

Petits fours.

Cafe.

Clicquot, Yellow Label. Apolitnarts.

The favors for the cotilion were wreaths of arti The favors for the cottlion were wreaths of articical flowers for the girls and broad ribbon sashed for the men. This dance was led by Walter M. Hatch, dancing with Miss Mary Stillman, whose dress was of pink satin, velled with chentile dotted tuile, and the bust embroidered in delicate tracery, Beside Mr. Hatch, the Committee on Arrangements included A. A. Low, William Cary Sanger and Edward Hubbard Litchfield. Two orchestras furnished the music. While the ball is primarily a Heights affair, yet the guests were from all parts of the city. Among the women present were Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, Mrs. Charles Arthur Moore, Mrs. Francis N. Dodge, Miss Dodge, Miss Elizabeth, Packard, Mrs. George Chauncey, Miss Madeline Chauncey, Miss Grace Maxwell, Miss Clara Packard, Miss Litchfield, Miss Marlon Litchfield, Miss Adele Kenyon, Miss Ethel Eames, Mrs. Samuel Bowne Duryea, Miss Kathryn Reed, Miss Du Val, Miss Charlotte Stillman, Miss Southard and Mrs. George H. Prentiss. ficial flowers for the girls and broad ribbon sashes

Miss Helen M. Gould gave the first receptions yesterday afternoon at her home. No. 578 Fifth-ave. She was assisted in receiving by, Mrs. George J. Gould. Mrs. Russell Sage, 578. Charles E. Snow, Miss Ethel Gould. Miss Ida. Northrop, Miss Anna Palen, Miss Virginia Orton and Frank J. Gould, her brother. At her next reception on Tuesday, January 24, Miss Gould will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edwin Gould. Miss Florence Coppell, of No. & Fifth-ave., who had cards out for a dinner party last night, was obliged to recall them on account of the serious liness of her slater, who is suffering from an attack.

Mrs. George L. Gillespie, of No. 49 East Fiftythird-st., gave another of her days at home yesterday afternoon. She was assisted in receiving by General and Mrs. W. S. Worth. Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Jules Vatable presided at the tea table. Mrs. Gillespie will receive informally on Tuesday in January.

Mrs. Edmund A. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Gorman, of No. 226 Madison-ave, will give the first of her Wednesdays at home this afternoon.

Mrs. Frederic J. De Peyster and the Misses De first of three receptions yesterday afternoon. Mrs. De Peyster and her daughters were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Newbold Morris and Miss Frances. Peyster, of No. 7 East Forty-second-st., gave the seventh-st, gave a dinner of fourteen covers last evening. The table decorations were in red. Banjo music accompanied the dinner. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. John W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Ladd, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Horaco W. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff.

was the entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. H. k place at noon yesterday at the Rennert, Robert W. Dean, of Providence, R. L. man, and Miss Jane Peebles, a cousin of of Pittsburg, was maid of honor. NorThe menu cards were designed by Mrs. Whitaker. The menu cards were designed by Mrs Whitaker and were handpainted. Beautiful souvenitrs of chinapieces and tilver-topped loving cups were given to the guests by the hostess. A supper at the Netherland followed. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Rue, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Roesser, Mr. and Mrs. Swett, of Philadelphia; Mr. Brunner, of Philadelphia, and his sister. Mr. Smith. Miss Martina Johnstone, the Swedish violinist; Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand L. Torriani and George D. Worthington.

POISONING CASE AT A STANDSTILL.

No arrest was made by the police in connection with the Adams poisoning mystery yesterday, and nothing developed to show that there was any nothing developed to show that there was any more likelihood of a definite move on the part of the Central Office detectives engaged on the case than there has been for the last week. Yesterday, morning there was the usual rumor of a mysterious prisoner at Police Headquarters, and it quickly proved to be as foolish and as groundless as such rumors have been heretofore.

David N. Carvalho, the handwriting expert, who has been working on the handwriting on the package addressed to Harry Cornish, the contents of which killed Mrs. Adams, was at Police Headquarters in conference with Captain heches was leaving the building Mr. Carvalho said to a reporter that he was now employed by the police, though he had before been employed for a short time by Mr. Molineux. The expert went on to say that he had had many more difficult cases that this one to solve in his experience, and he now had in his possession specimens of handwriting bearing a resemblance to the address on the package.

"SPARE RIB" DINNER FOR BLUMENTHAL Assistant District-Attorney Morris Blumenthal was the guest of honor last night at a "spare rib" inner arranged by his friends in Clement's Restaurant, t Crosby and Broome sts. Among those present were District-Attorney Asa Bird Gardiner, Assistant District Attorney John F. Mo-Intyre, Assistant District-Attorney Daniel O'Reilly, Judge Joseph E. Newburger, Patrick Keenan and A. J. Bryan.

Pianola Recital

To-day, Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 3 P. M.

We invite every one who feels an interest in recent developments in musical instruments to attend our Recitals and hear the Pianola. The remarkable strides lately made in to proving semi-automatic instruments demand the attention from every one interested in mu-

The Pianola is a piano-player, which has been perfected so that it has become a satisfactory substitute for the human performer, and, indeed, is capable of a finish and nicety of execution which very few of the greatest artists can pretend to. It is somewhat different from hand-playing. giving a sort of idealized performance, in which every note is exactly where it ought to be. It does in fact, in perfection, what the performer would do if he could. It has received the endorsements of planists like Rosenthal, and conductors like Paur and Mancinelli. The Pianoia can be attached to any plane, and does not in the least interfere with ordinary plano-playing. An extensive repertory of the finest pieces for the piano, as well as all the latest popular music, has been prepared. A child can play the Pianola tolerably after an hour's practice.

Dutchman."

The Æolian Co., 18 West 23d St.